ISEBEL Intelligent Search Engine for Belief Legends

Bringing belief legends together cross-language

ISEBEL is a collaborative effort of international institutes and archives. It aims at providing unified cross language search on belief legends to folklore researchers and linguists. The requirements on the original data is specifically set to a minimum in order to facilitate and attract more collaborative partners from all around the globe.

www.isebel.eu